

Ipswich Opportunity Area Primary School Senior
Lead
Temporary due to project specific funding from 1 September 2019 to 31 August 2020
Leadership Scale

JOB DESCRIPTION

RESPONSIBLE TO: Headteacher of designated school and Ipswich Opportunity Area (IOA) Partnership Board

SALARY: £45,213 per annum (pro rata)

PURPOSE OF THE POST:

The IOA School Leads will provide short-term capacity to support the eight primary schools within the IOA that have been rated Ofsted 'Requires Improvement' or 'Inadequate' within the past year. The IOA School Senior Leads will be responsible for supporting their designated school(s) to access, implement, evaluate and embed IOA programmes in the 2018/19 academic year. As part of this, the IOA School Senior Leads will work with other Senior Leaders within the school to produce a long-term plan to support pupil progress beyond the life of the IOA programme.

WORKING TIME:

An IOA School Senior Lead will be recruited to each of the eight target primary schools at 0.5FTE. Applications are welcome from individuals who meet the person specification below, and are looking for a part-time (0.5FTE) role working within one school, or a full time (1FTE) role working across two schools. Applications are welcome from individuals wishing to take on the role on a one-year fixed term contract, or via secondment. Support to move to the role on secondment must be obtained from existing employers prior to application.

RESPONSIBILITIES SPECIFIC TO THE POST:

The IOA School Senior Lead will be expected to:

- Establish and support key members of school staff responsible for delivery of IOA programmes within the school, regularly monitoring progress and impact;
- Contribute to existing pupil premium strategies in school to ensure that IOA programmes are closely aligned with the school's planned activities and spending;
- Create a long-term plan to ensure successful academic and destination outcomes for disadvantaged pupils;
- Meet half termly with IOA School Senior Leads from other IOA schools to share good practice in supporting disadvantaged pupils;
- Attend senior leadership team meetings in school and ensure school leaders are aware of the availability and progress of current programmes, and to identify areas of school improvement that the IOA could contribute to;
- Report termly to the Headteacher and IOA Programme Manager and Area Lead on the progress and impact of IOA programmes;
- Work closely with the Research School to ensure that the school's key strategies to support the progress of disadvantaged pupils are evidence led;
- Attend all IOA meetings, and ensure that information from these meetings, and other IOA communication, is effectively and regularly shared with key school staff;
- Attend all CPD opportunities provided for the IOA School Senior Lead role;

- Develop a plan that is based on best practice to improve the attendance of disadvantaged pupils within the school by April 2020, and lead the implementation of this plan working in partnership with other senior leaders;
- Contribute to establishing a strong network of IOA School Senior Leads in Ipswich by December 2019; and,
- Support the evaluation work of the IOA programme by distributing surveys, organising focus groups and providing impact data as required.
- Take a role in the full life of the school(s), which will mean focusing on the needs of colleagues, parents and students and being flexible in a demanding environment.

Reporting

The IOA School Senior Lead will be required to develop a long-term plan to ensure IOA programmes are sustainable within the school, by 1 April 2020. This plan should demonstrate how IOA programmes are integrated within the school's wider plan to ensure successful academic and destination outcomes for disadvantaged pupils

To monitor progress, the IOA School Senior Lead will be required meet half termly with the IOA Programme Coordinator for Evidence Based Practice, or the IOA Programme Manager (both based within the University of Suffolk). The IOA School Senior Lead will also be required to submit reports towards the end of each term outlining the following:

- Progress in implementing IOA programmes
- Evidence of early impact from IOA programmes
- Collaborative work
- Challenges to implementation and impact
- Recommendations made to SLT
- Recommendations to IOA
- School level action plan - priorities for the next term, and development/iteration of long-term action plan
- The dates for reports will be set out, in writing, by the IOA Programme Manager on appointment to the post.

This job description forms part of the contract of employment of the person appointed to the post. It reflects the position at the present time only and may be reviewed in negotiation with the employee in the future.

CONTEXT:

Opportunity Areas (OAs) are part of the government's national plan for improving social mobility through education. Ipswich was announced as one of the twelve OAs identified across England in January 2017. As such, Ipswich is benefitting from a share of £72 million to deliver a locally produced three year plan to improve outcomes for the most disadvantaged children and young people in the town through education. The IOA delivery plan, which outlines the priorities and targets for the area, can be found here.

The IOA programme will end in July 2020. The IOA School Senior Leads will be responsible for maximizing the impact of the programme within the 2019/20 academic year, in the eight primary schools listed below.

Sprites Primary Academy - Tania Devereux, Headteacher - Tania.devereux@sprites.suffolk.sch.uk

Hillside Primary School - Lee Abbott, Headteacher - l.abbott@hillsidecp.net

Applicants are encouraged to contact the above schools to find out more about their specific needs, prior to applying for the post. If applicants wish to express an interest in working in any of the schools, they may do this in their application. Applicants who demonstrate they meet the criteria for the role, will be invited to an assessment day on w/c 8 May where they will complete an interview and assessment task. At the assessment day, applicants will have a further opportunity to meet the headteachers and express a preference for a school, but there is no guarantee that the applicant will be matched to their preferred school.

The appointment of the IOA School Senior Leads will rest with the individual schools, following a joint recruitment process to identify successful candidates.

Due to the nature of this job, it will be necessary for the appropriate level of Criminal Record Disclosure to be undertaken. This will be completed by the matched school. It is essential that you disclose whether you have any pending charges, convictions, bind-overs or cautions and if so, for which offences.

This post will be exempt from the provisions of Section 4, (2), of the Rehabilitation of Offenders 1974 (exemptions) (Amendments) Order 1986. Therefore, you are not entitled to withhold information about convictions which for other purposes are “spent” under the provisions of the Act. Any failure to disclose such convictions will result in dismissal or disciplinary action by the Academy.

The applicant will be required to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people

HOW TO APPLY:

Please submit a CV and covering letter addressed to Charlotte McKeown at: opportunityareas.east@education.gov.uk by 5pm Thursday 18 April.

Please state in the covering letter if you have a preference for a school or schools listed within this advert.

If you are applying on secondment, please also provide evidence that your current employer has agreed to release you for the duration of the year-long contract.

Shortlisting will take place w/c 22 April and invites to interview will be issued by the end of the same week.
